

RACISM COMES IN MANY DIFFERENT FORMS

"It is Milwaukee County's responsibility to address racism"

— County Executive Chris Abele

The majority of MCTS riders are people of color who rely on transit for all of their needs. Public transportation connects communities to jobs, health care and growth opportunities. Abele says he wants to address racism, but instead he continues to attack the transit system and the workers who support it.

ABELE'S ATTACKS ON TRANSIT HURT OUR RIDERS, WORKERS AND COMMUNITY

- Abele proposed $3 million dollars in cuts to transit
- 16 million drop in ridership since Abele began cutting routes
- Abele proposed up to $6000 annual increase in health care costs per transit worker
- 14% annual turnover of transit workers, threatening the safety of our transit system
